The Mason LINE

by Chon Mason

Eleven million dollars is a sizeable pile of cabbage even in these days of billion dollar state budgets. This tidy little sum is what the California Division of Fairs and Expositions is asking for this year and will get, we understand, unless the law is changed.

Now, we don't like to show our ignorance by asking foolish questions—but if we remember correctly, didn't we pay 80c each time we went through the turnstiles last year and 40c for our offspring and 25c to park the family bus? Seems like we paid a pretty good price to advertise in the Fair Program and a couple of years ago, weren't we clipped rather close for the privilege of displaying a product or two?

We don't know, because we're lost mathematically when we deal in more than three figures, but with 70 fairs operating throughout the state at a cost of 11,000,000.00, one fair operating for 14 days on a proportionate basis is losing better than ten thousand clams per day. Shades of Grandma's petit point! Progress comes high these days. So high in fact, that when the Grossmont High School Future Farmers and 4H Clubs asked the Division of Fairs and Expositions for a five day show instead of 14, they were turned down. Progress phooey!

Here's a tip for the L. G. C. of C. Maybe next year you can include a Livestock Exhibit along with a rodeo. Some pretty fine young men and women could be very much interested.

A sign on an El Cajon Motel: "Enjoy a good night's rest. Sleep off the Hiway." caused us to ponder a bit the other day. Good advice, not always heeded, but good sound advice, nevertheless.

—ML—
There must be a moral to the fact that after all the years we humans have been talking about the birds and the bees, their reputations remain as clean as the driven snow. We're glad we can never know what they tell their offspring about us!

Local Demos Call For Bigger Tax Exemption

Returning from the Democratic State Convention in Fresno, Mrs. Chas. McKenzie, Darryl Street, delegate from the 28th Congressional District, reported that the Democratic Council called for legislation boosting the family exemption of lower bracket income taxpayers from $600 to $1000.

It also called for an end to increases in sales and excise taxes. Five regional vice-presidents were elected of which Ross T. McIntire of San Diego will serve for Southern California.

All Democrats in the Homeland area are urged to attend the next meeting Friday evening, April 15, at the Golden Avenue School, Lemon Grove, to get an overall picture of the big stakes involved in taxes, state and national legislation favoring a program based on the ability to pay.

The program will feature talks by Mrs. John Landesco, whose articles appear in monthly publication, "The Democrat." Sumner Alpert, president of the Young Democrats, and guest Morris Sankary, attorney, and husband of Assemblywoman Wanda Sankary.

Mrs. McKenize also announces plans to help expand this new Democratic organization which includes Casa de Oro, Spring Valley and Lemon Grove are now under way, and will organize a program on any topic requested by Democratic residents in the various communities of the 77th Assembly District. Membership and phone calls are always welcome. HO 9-2916 for any information or requests.

LIKE EASTER EGG, FORGOTTEN AD IS FINALLY FOUND

Last week in the Review was the item about a free pomade offer being made by the Lemon Grove Drug Store. We even named the page number so that pomade users wouldn't have to work so hard to find it. What happened? Gremlins. The ad didn't get on the page indicated. As a matter of fact it was lost and didn't get in the paper at all.

This week, if the ennu of the composing room can be overcome, and the make-up man doesn't forget, the LB Pomade advertisement will appear on page seven, provided the advertising department sends through an order to get it in this week's paper.

Retail Merchants' Division Revitalized

A Retail Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce will be revitalized in Lemon Grove, it was unanimously decided Monday night when representatives of businesses agreed on principal an re-forming the organization.

Freeborn Cressy, chairman of the group, said that four years ago, when a similar group was set up, there were 38 businesses in Lemon Grove. "There are 230 now, according to Dun and Bradstreet," he pointed out, "and it is time that we attract more people to the business section."

Another meeting has been set for Monday at 7:30 at the chamber meeting place in the justice court.

Bulletin!

The sale of a 62-acre regional shopping center site near Lemon Grove to Michael C. Birnkant, of Los Angeles, was announced yesterday by George A. Scott, president and general manager of the Walker-Scott Corp., who purchased the property as a personal investment in September, 1954.

Birnkant, represented in the negotiations by Phillip Lyon Co., was identified by brokers as "a substantial owner of property occupied by J. C. Penny Co. stores and the nation's largest individual owner of chain store real estate." Birnkant said the land and improvements will cost 10 million dollars.

The Walker-Scott Company will operate the principal department store in the new development which the new owner said will be completed by the fall of 1956. Birnkant said the building to be erected for the Walker-Scott Company will be "substantially larger than the firm's present downtown store at Fifth and Broadway."

"The sale to Mr. Birnkant assures adequate financial backing from a capable and experienced developer who can move forward immediately to complete the project. Under our agreement with the developer, the Walker-Scott Company is assured for an opportunity to undertake its first regional expansion program without delays."

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

The S. D. Arizona Eastern Railway which runs through our town, and which is jocularly referred to by the irreverent as the San Diego, East Lemon Grove and Back, has within the week, made two concessions to Lemon Grove residents.

They will suffer a crosswalk to be laid across its tracks at Broadway, although their attitude has been in the past, at least by inference, that the railroad is really too good for us, so keep off our tracks, you silly bums.

The California Public Utilities has ordered the railway and authorized the county to get the crosswalk in and I presume that it will be done during the next 30 days.

I don't know the motivating force that allowed a flag pole to be installed by the Lemon Grove Masonia Order on the east side of the tracks just north of Broadway, but I do know that the project was started three years ago. So was the crosswalk project.

I think that the S. D. Eastern railway, like any neighbor which is either uncooperative or slovenly, has not many friends in this community. It's too bad, too, because all of us as Americans, have contributed many of our tax dollars to subsidizing railways. I refer particularly to the wide strips of land which our government gave these carriers in years past so that they might serve a growing nation. Naturally, the government is us and what they gave was ours but the several motion pictures I have seen, and the novels I have read, tend to show that the railroads were built practically alone except for the assistance of a big muscled, handsome leading man who had charge of a group of foreign gandy-dancers. This, I charge, is propaganda straight out of the imagination of the director's board.

The S. D. Eastern is an offshoot sprout of the Southern Pacific Lines and I presume that since the S. P. sells tickets to passengers, and offers their box cars for movement of freight, they must have some regard for public relations. If they don't, they should, because the airlines, the truck lines, and bus firms are far less arbitrary concerning their get-along-together ability with potential clients... not to mention the good-will of their stockholders, who could, if they could muster up enough of their numbers together at one time, kick some of the bums off the board.

Instead of cementing relations with riders and freight shippers in Lemon Grove they have, it seems to me, attempted to antagonize them. They sealed off a major crosswalk in the center of our town last year, forcing our women and children to walk in the middle of Golden Avenue and expose themselves to the hazards of traffic.

For years they have allowed the tracks south of Golden Avenue to become so untidy and weed ridden that it amounts to a disgrace. If we, as passengers, made an S. P. passenger car as untidy as they have made our community we would be jailed, possibly on a "disturbance of railway sanitation" charge.

Finally, the evil men who drive those locomotives, whose wives probably won't allow them a word at home, pull the strings to blast the horn so long and loud that all conversation must stop until these sadistic fiends have vented their wrath on me, and you, and the rest of us who suffer this ungrateful railway.

Dr. Towner Crow, one of our town's most respected doctors, is the editor of the service club publication, The Kiwanigram. Dr. Crow, normally a serene character of mild manner, often flips his lid on the railroad subject as he writes his weekly stint. Often he says succinctly, "The railroad must go," but so far he hasn't been able to achieve his purpose.

Seriously, I know at least three businessmen in Lemon Grove who refuse to use railway freight because of the S. D. Eastern's high handed attitude.

I hope some junior official on the Southern Pacific gets wind of this complaint and gets mad enough to investigate these charges. If he does a good job he might get a gold star on his certificate of merit which is a step toward becoming 15th vice president where he may eventually reach the giddy heights of 8th vice president, this being the level where executives plan more ways to harass and insult the communities they are franchised to serve.

Ruffled Petunia—For Color in Generous Splashes

And surely spring is around the corner when the California Bedding Plant Advisory Board selects Ruffled Petunia as the Bedding Plant of the Week, for here is a solid citizen of the summer garden. Already a sense of urgency is noted in certain plant items. Hurry! Hurry! Hurry before it is too late!

Luckily we have several months to reap the full benefit of setting out a flat or two of ruffled petunias, however, the sooner acclimated the greater the benefits received. For ruffled petunias planted now will ordinarily give color within a few weeks and continue on until late September or October. And such color—huge blooms of saucer size in reds, pinks, magentas and many multi-colors. In mixtures Ruffled Petunias are usually sold in a dwarf strain and a tall strain. Each has its peculiar merits and should be used accordingly. The dwarf strain is larger flowered with a more limited color range. The tall strain is a little rangy in growth with smaller flowers and the compensation of much wider color range. Some solid colors are available and particular interest has been noticed in the fine F-1 hybrid ruffled petunias such as Tango, Ballerina, La Paloma and others. For the small premium in price the F-1 hybrids are a good investment in gardening pleasure. Of increased vigor and uniform growth the outstanding characteristic of the F-1 hybrid petunia is their trueness to color. Rogues or off-color plants are practically nonexistent and the resulting garden performance is heart warming.

Petunias are sun lovers. Within limitations they are drought resistant. They are one of the easiest plants to care for and combine well in cultural requirements with many other sturdy summer annuals such as marigolds, phlox, dahlias, zinnias, aster, ageratum, balsam, portulaca, celosia and verbena, to mention a few. Petunias spread out, so allow room for side growth. Borders in particular should be planted with at least a foot of open ground for the petunia to occupy. The taller plants can fight their own battle for space but the effect is generally more pleasing if ample room is allowed!

Sub-Standard Teachers Rejected By C.T.A. Unit

A California Teachers Association unit organized to maintain high standards in the teaching profession moved last week to bring an early end to conditions which permit teachers with sub-standard training to staff California classrooms.

Meeting at the California Hotel in San Francisco, the C.T.A. Teacher Education and Professional Standards Committee prepared a sharp statement of policy which would eliminate many of the legal loopholes through which teachers not fully qualified can now be hired.

According to the C.T.A. group, the problem of sub-standard certification in California "continues to be critical." The emergency credential, which was removed by C.T.A. recommendation in 1953, was replaced by a provisional credential in July, 1954.

Ten thousand teachers, or about ten per cent of California's classroom personnel, are now teaching with only this sub-standard credential.

Furthermore, the statement pointed out, continuation of the practice of granting credentials to applicants having even less than minimum requirements for the provisional credential is evidenced in the fact that no refusals of applications for such low-grade credentials were recorded between August 1, 1954 and March 1, 1955.

"It now seems imperative," the C.T.A. group's policy states, "that the profession take further steps to safeguard the quality of teaching service by securing more adequate certification standards."

The committee's recommendations will be presented to the C.T.A. State Council of Education, which meets at Asilomar April 8 and 9. The State Council is the 276-member policy making body which represents the 73,000 C.T.A. members in the state.

La Mesa Helicopter Service

We have a vivid recollection of one program out of many flown for the U. S. Forest Service. . . . This major forest fire was burning along Highway 74, just west of Lake Elsinore. . . . Fire was started by a tourist, and burned over 6000 acres during the 14 days we were there last September. . . . Kept our helicopter crew busy from dawn till dark each day. . . . Hundreds of other fire fighters were exhausting themselves on shifts to maintain a 24 hour battle every day. . . . Mighty rough country out there and the helicopters were indispensable in advancing all sections of the fireline. . . . We hauled everything up and down those mountains from Zuni Indians to diesel oil to hot food for firefighters' breakfasts. . . . Can you imagine the difference between hiking through canyons and scaling rock walls for 14 hours to reach the fire on top of the mountain and covering the same route by helicopter in six minutes?

Airport Cafe Changes Hands

Joe Eaton, well known former automobile agency operator and presently owner-operator of the La Mesa Airport, said this week that he had leased the cafe on the airfield property to Jeanne Van Cott, popular night club and cafe entertainer.

Miss Van Cott, a pianist and organist, has been associated with the Brass Rail and Rudy's Hideaway, she said. She also had experience in New York nightclubs, the most recent one the Tow-path in Albany, N. Y.

The policy of the cafe will be changed in that it will be open every day and evening except Tuesday, she said. Clubs and private parties will continue to be given special attention. Decorations of the club have been changed, she said, and the cocktail lounge will get a new motif. A new menu with a wider variety of choices is now offered.

More emphasis will be given entertainment, she said. Eaton will continue to operate the airfield, he said.

LESSON-SERMON CHALLENGES REALITY OF DISEASE AND DEATH

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" This thought arousing question is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in the Christian Science churches Sunday.

A section of the sermon is devoted to Peter's proof of the power of the Christ in the raising of Dorcas from death. It is related in The Acts (9:39, 40): "When he was come, . . . all the widows stood by him weeping. . . . But Peter put them all forth, and kneeling down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up."

"Life is eternal. We should find this out, and begin the demonstration thereof," declares Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." She continues, "Life and goodness are immortal." "Man's privilege at this supreme moment is to prove the words of our Master: 'If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.'" (pp. 246, 428).

SOUP SCOOPS

PRICE is plentiful, so now's a good time to scan your cookbooks for recipes that feature it. The nicest thing about rice is its versatility. As a vegetable, it's a pleasant potato substitute. In casseroles, it's a tasty filling ingredient. And rice is a fluffy, appealing base for main dishes.

Tops in the main dish department is this recipe for Gravy Smothered Beef on Rice. It's made the modern way with canned beef gravy, which provides abundant rice in numerous kitchen ventures. The canned-gravy makes this dish a ready-in-a-wink operation and gives it an elegant flavor.

Gravy Smothered Beef on Rice
3 cups cooked rice (1 5-ounce package pre-cooked rice)
1 small onion, minced
1 can (1 1/2 cups) beef gravy
1 to 2 cups beef, chopped

Cook rice. Meanwhile, brown onion in small amount of butter or margarine in saucepan. Add beef and meat to onion; allow to simmer 10 minutes. Arrange cooked, drained rice in a ring on large platter. Pour beef gravy mixture into center. Garnish with parsley if desired. 4 servings. FNS

The Bright Future of San Diego and Walker-Scott Company

Our store volume is running nicely ahead at Fifth Avenue and Broadway and we believe it will be a very prosperous year.

In July we occupy our wonderful new Warehouse, located at 908 Sherman Street in the Golden Industrial Tract. Imagine how we have grown in slightly less than twenty years for now we need a Warehouse two-thirds the size of our present store.

We are getting ready in every way for "OUR 110,000 SQUARE FOOT NEW STORE" to be located in, what will be, San Diego's greatest Shopping Center at College Avenue and Federal Boulevard, near thriving Lemon Grove.

Some 37 other stores and a 40,000 square foot Super Market will join us there. Just imagine, 4208 cars can be parked in the Shopping Center immediately adjacent to all the stores and the Market.

This Shopping Center when completed in late 1956 or early 1957 will require an investment of nearly Six Million Dollars.

San Diego has been good to us and we are mighty grateful. We have tried to repay in business, employment and personal service to the community.

I repeat, San Diego's future is very bright and Walker-Scott's money is on the line to prove it. To the doubters and rumor lovers, we say, read all the words here written and "Do ye likewise."

To you good reader our added thanks

Revolting Indians Lose Battle of Spring Valley in 1801

A short while back, Mike Krauss, living at Central and Olive Dr., was digging a garden, and came upon an iron ball which measured about 2 1/2 inches in diameter.

Mike didn't think too much about it until he discovered another one in a hole where an olive tree had been recently removed. On further investigation he came to the conclusion that they were cannon balls used from the time of the Revolutionary War, up to about the time of the Civil War. What were these cannon balls doing in Spring Valley?

The answer may be in the "History of San Diego County," published in 1936, in conjunction with the San Diego Press Club. A passage headed "Forgotten Battle" had this to say:
 "Spring Valley in 1801 was part of the San Diego Mission fields. A letter from Capt. Rufus K. Porter, published in the San Francisco Bulletin November 26, 1883, gives information about an ancient battle which we have not seen chronicled elsewhere.

"I wrote in a former letter about my carp pool, in Spring Valley, about 10 miles east of this city (San Diego). I now want to say that though nothing in the early history of San Diego and the Old Mission has been said about 'San Jorge' which is the old time name for this particular portion of the ancient range of the Mission Indians, nor the sea coast, where they could find plenty of fresh water, an article not too abundant near the sea, whence they could bring fish, clams, abalone and other good things, to help out the grass roots and other delectable edibles of life. In digging one of our wells, not far from the 'Aguaje de San Jorge' we found clams and other sea shells more than 20 feet below the surface of the ground.

"I have been informed by reliable people, old time folks, that in the year 1801 there was a big battle fought on this very ground between 4000 revolting Indians on one side and the native and Spanish troops on the other, numbering about 100 men, under the command of Macedonio Gonzales, a 'native and to the manner born.' The Indians could not withstand the fire arms of the troops, bad as they must have been, and were compelled to submit, after losing a good many of the men, letting the conquerors take horses and whatever property they could find.

"Commander Gonzales only passed away a few years ago (before this letter was written), and when I knew him at the age of 90 years, he was still able to ride a broncho mule down almost any mountain where the beast could travel."

"During 1933-36 evidence of basic fact for Captain Porter's story of Spring Valley Battle has been turned up by the present owner of the property (probably Bancroft), in the shape of small cannon balls, pieces of ancient fire arms and arrowheads."

Grossmont to Select Architect for New High School

The board of trustees of the Grossmont Union High School District set in motion a plan to consider various offers of architectural services before contracting with any architectural firm for services in connection with the fourth high school in the district.

During the next two months, the assistant superintendent, Mr. Harold G. Hughes, will arrange for inspection trips, trips to permit the members of the board of trustees to observe examples of the work of various architectural firms who have expressed interest in the construction program of the district.

After visitation to observe examples of the work of various architects, the board will schedule a series of conferences before making its selection.

According to Mr. Hughes, assistant superintendent, the selection of an architectural firm should be accomplished during the next two to three months. The preliminary planning and specific planning should be accomplished during the current year so that the actual construction might start early in 1956. This would give approximately 18 months for the completion of the high school plant if it is to be ready to open in September of 1957.

Local Lumbermen Have Part in State Convention

Two prominent Lemon Grove lumber dealers will take active parts in the 38th Annual Convention of the Southern California Retail Lumber Association, April 12-14 in the Ambassador Hotel, Los Angeles, it was reported today.

They are Fred I. Ward, owner, president and general manager, Fred Ward Lumber Company, Inc., 3580 Massachusetts, and Stephen Westover, manager, Lemon Grove Lumber Company, 7750 North Ave.

The local lumbermen will attend discussions on increases in construction costs and business failures, the trend in building, serve-yourself trade, the do-it-yourself market and the monetary situation as it affects business and industry.

They also will discuss proposed state legislation, which would harass the lumber industry and run up the retail price of lumber and related building materials.

Legislation for discussion will include Senate Bill 1840 and Assembly Bills 1813, 2206 and 2389. These bills, according to Orrie W. Hamilton, the association's executive vice president, would require lumberyard operators to protect their lien rights by serving notices on property owners when delivering building materials.

Under existing legislation the lien responsibility rests on the prime contractor. Hamilton said the search for owners' identities would entail much costly effort. Boosts in lumber prices, he explained, would be unavoidable and would impose needless hardship on new home owners throughout the state.

YMCA STARTS REGISTERING CAMPERS

Lemon Grove boys and girls will begin signing up this week for summer camp periods at YMCA Camp Marston, near Julian, according to William C. Poirier, general secretary.

Registrations will be received at the camp office, 1115 Eighth Ave., San Diego (BE 4-5956). Camp folders will be mailed on request.

Summer schedule includes County Y boys periods: June 28-July 5; July 5-14; and August 10-19 and a girls' camp period August 19-26. Harold Stapley and Bob Kenyon will direct.

Camp Marston, near Julian, will begin its 35th year of service which included over 400 county area boys and girls last summer. Horseback riding, swimming, boating, and crafts are among a wide variety of activities under trained leaders. Camp facilities will be enlarged this year with more cabins and program equipment.

Most communities will hold rallies and registration weeks during the spring.

The County Y camp periods are a "Red Feather" service.

ANNUAL FESTIVAL PLANNED BY HOTEL-MOTEL INDUSTRY

With half of its goal of $80,000 to be used in the staging of the annual event "Festival of the Pacific," already pledged, the San Diego County hotel and motel industry has opened a campaign to raise the remaining $30,000 by Friday, April 15. The project is to attract more tourists.

Owners and operators of county hotels and motels pledged the initial $30,000 recently at a meeting held in Balboa Park, sponsored by the annual event's hotel and motel committee.

Evaluation of Students' Abilities Eyed By Teachers

A call to public schools in every community to ally themselves with the needs of businessmen was sounded recently in a bulletin issued by the Public Relations Advisory Panel of the California Teachers Association.

The panel declared that "public schools have a responsibility to serve the business community by establishing themselves as a reliable source of pertinent information for employers of high school graduates." It also suggested that graduates be provided with written evidence of vocational skills which they possess. Examples of this are in use in San Francisco, where certificates of competence are given to students in bookkeeping, machine calculation, typewriting, and stenography.

The report recommended that three steps be taken in the development of improved service to business by the schools:

1. Counseling techniques must, in many schools, be improved.
2. Methods of keeping student records should be revised so that information needed for hiring purposes is included.
3. Meetings between businessmen and educators should be held to determine what information employers would like to know about qualifications of high school graduates seeking work, and schools must then be prepared to answer such questions quickly, accurately, and thoroughly.

The panel, which is itself composed of businessmen and educators, warned that "employers must be made aware that graduation from high school does not necessarily indicate that the graduate possesses a specific vocational skill."

The report added: "They must recognize that just as no two youngsters are exactly alike mentally or physically, neither can they be educated alike or emerge with exactly the same skills."

ADVENTISTS' PATHFINDER LEADERSHIP CONVENTION SCHEDULED NEXT WEEK

Special training in youth guidance and leadership will be given to 11 delegates attending from the La Mesa-Lemon Grove Seventh-day Adventist Church at a Christian Leadership and Pathfinder training convention to be held April 10 to 12 at the Paradise Valley Sanitarium and Hospital.

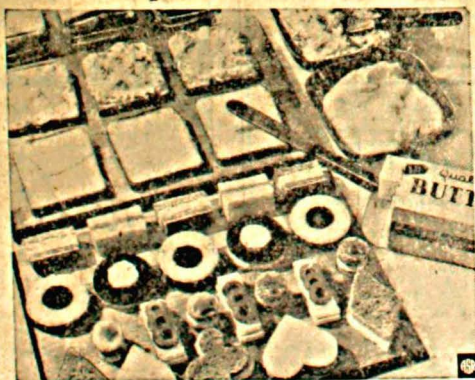

METHODISTS PLAN EASTER SERVICES

The Lemon Grove Methodist Church will hold special Easter Sunday services in Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. and in the worship hour of 11 a.m. The Methodist congregation is meeting temporarily in the Lemon Grove Woman's Clubhouse, 2810 Main St., between Main and Olive.

Church School classes will all have special Easter activities and a closing program will lift up the meaning of Easter for all who attend Sunday School.

A special invitation is extended to those in the community who have no regular church home to come and worship Easter Sunday.

Butter Spreads Sandwich Fame

The phrase, "bread and butter" became part of the framework of the English language because these two foods are basic in the daily menu. Butter gives flavor and moisture to bread. It also has a flavor-carrying factor that makes its use standard in sandwiches. Butter actually distributes the goodness of the filling throughout the sandwich.

Since butter is so delicate a spread, it must be protected from air, light, the hazards of shipment and from stronger flavored foods near it. It will stay creamy—fresh if packaged in parchment or foil wrap plus a paraffined carton. Unless used immediately at home, butter should be kept in the carton to guard against more dominant flavored foods in the home refrigerator.

Luncheon Sandwich
8 slices bread or toast
Butter
1 cup chopped chicken, flaked
or canned crabmeat, salmon, tuna or ground cooked ham
1/4 cup mayonnaise
Spread bread or toast with butter. Mix together remaining ingredients. Pile on top of 4 of the buttered bread slices; top with remaining slices.
YIELD: 4 servings.

Flavored Butter Spread
(Enough for 10 canapés or tea sandwiches)
1. Soften 1/4 cup butter. Add 1/4 cup finely chopped watercress and 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 1 teaspoon lemon juice and 1/2 teaspoon minced onion. Mix well.
2. Soften 1/4 cup butter. Add 2 tablespoons horseradish and 3 tablespoons minced pimiento. Mix well.
3. Soften 1/4 cup butter. Add 1 small can deviled ham, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard and 1/2 teaspoon Tabasco. Mix well.

Austin Guild to Have Style Showing at Country Club

The advent of warm weather and the anticipation of vacation days, meant for fun and relaxation, have inspired the theme for the "Summer Garden" style show to be held at Mission Valley Country Club, April 14 at 11 a.m. The event in the form of a brunch, is being planned by the Austin Guild, mother's club of St. Augustine High School.

Want To Win A Contest?

Mrs. Richard Feldon of Chicago is crossing her fingers for luck as she mails in a contest entry. Actually, in many contests, but not every one of them, it's skill and not luck that determines the winner. If you have wondered how the winners do it, and want to enter such a contest, here are a few hints that may sound like only common sense but can help you win valuable prizes. They are from a firm that judges contests.

Almost all major contests today are turned over to such firms to assure fairness. According to this authority, it is important to note the rules carefully. Follow them exactly, for the first screening eliminates entries with rule infractions, illegibility or lateness. For example, in a current contest conducted by "all," the controlled suds detergent, the rules require that you "tell your neighbor" and give the neighbor's name. If this rule was overlooked, your entry would be disqualified. Except in a contest requiring artistic skill, needless elaboration is a waste of time and effort. One woman embroidered her entry on a beautiful satin panel, but the fancy work was no advantage. Elaborate titles and panel, but the fancy work was no advantage. Elaborate titles and panel, but the fancy work was no advantage.

So, take your pencil in hand, study the rules, then give your entry your sincere best; and who knows, you, too, may soon be in the news as a contest winner!

LAW IN ACTION

OUTLAWED DEBTS
You may hear that some debt has been "outlawed." Why should someone get rid of his honest debts merely by not paying them for a long enough time?
Well, the law looks at delayed claims this way: If you have a just claim, you owe the debtor a duty to press your claim within a reasonable time. You should not "sleep" on your rights.

Why? Because stale claims are hard to prove, and defense against them is sometimes harder to make. One party to a law suit might wait until the only witness against him has died or gone away. Then he could sue and win unfairly. Anyhow, memories dim. Sometimes men and women honestly change their memories to fit their later views.

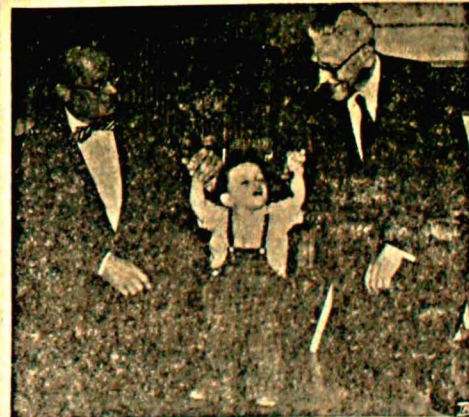

What is a reasonable time? Statutes of limitations set up the times after which you may not start a law suit. The time varies. For instance:
As a rule in California you cannot normally sue for possession of real property after five years. You cannot normally sue on a written contract after four years have elapsed, or on a spoken agreement after two years. In most personal injury cases, such as an automobile accident, you cannot bring a suit after one year.

The time does not run while the debtor or "defendant" is out of the state. Nor, as a rule, does the time run if a plaintiff (the one who brings the action) is a minor, or is insane, or is in prison, when the right to sue first begins.

The same holds in criminal actions. A court the other day threw out a case because the district attorney had not acted promptly. For witnesses in criminal cases like those in a civil suit also die, forget, change their minds, or leave the country. So, most criminal actions must go to court within a certain time. But there are exceptions. A murder charge, for instance, can generally be brought anytime.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.

Ike's Physician Aids Hospital Appeal

Maj. Gen. Howard McC. Snyder, personal physician to President Eisenhower, above right, shows keen interest in tiny patient at National Jewish Hospital at Denver, where persons of all faiths and ages, including infants, from all parts of the country, get free care.

DENVER, COLO.—More persons than ever before are regaining health through free, unlimited treatment for tuberculosis and chest diseases at National Jewish Hospital at Denver.

Operating since 1899 under the code that "none may enter who can pay, none can pay who enters," the non-sectarian nationwide Hospital has given more than 4,000,000 days of free care to nearly 50,000 patients.

First such institution in the nation, it has always pioneered in research and education in the entire field of tuberculosis, as well as in treatment and rehabilitation of patients. Of its fourteen buildings, the children's department is particularly renowned for its success in combating tuberculous meningitis, which, until a few years ago, was 100 per cent fatal.

Since its inception, the Hospital has been supported entirely by large and small voluntary contributions. Its sponsorship includes renowned national leaders, like its patients, are of all faiths. Among them is Maj. Gen.

Howard McC. Snyder, personal physician to President Eisenhower, who stated in a recent letter supporting the Hospital's fund appeal:
"Few institutions have matched the impact of this Hospital during the past half-century on the health of the world, and the men and women who are the guardians of that health. Its mission is total eradication of tuberculosis. With your help this can be accomplished."
The Hospital maintains close liaison with physicians, tuberculosis and health associations, fraternal, service and labor organizations, as its patient sources. Inquiries regarding admittance of patients or contributions to the Hospital's upkeep may be addressed to National Jewish Hospital at Denver, 3800 E. Colfax Ave., Denver 6, Colo.

Now its 56th year, the Hospital is expanding, particularly to meet growing demands for surgery in the control of tuberculosis. Commenting on this expansion, Dr. Sidney H. Dresler, medical director, and Dr. Gardner Middlebrook, director of research and laboratories, warned against "dangerous trends" in home treatment of the disease, adding that only the tuberculosis hospital can cope with the total needs of the tuberculosis patient.

California Magazine Expands Size, Coverage

FORTNIGHT, California's Own Newsmagazine, will expand its editorial coverage beginning next month to include the states of Washington, Oregon and Nevada, as well as British Columbia, it was announced by O. D. Keep, publisher of the regional magazine.

The expanded magazine will contain a minimum of 64 pages each issue and will be published on a monthly instead of a semi-monthly basis, the publisher added.

The first issue of the new FORTNIGHT will appear the latter part of April and will carry a May deadline. The name FORTNIGHT will be continued, subject to the reactions and suggestions of readers.

Started in 1947 by O. D. Keep Associates, Inc., FORTNIGHT has grown into a publication of notable influence in California with a net paid circulation of more than 85,000. Up to now, circulation has been virtually limited (97%) to California, but the move into the Northwest and Nevada will give advertisers a bonus market in these thriving areas as well as continued concentration in the quality market of California.

CEREBRAL PALSY TO GET FULL STUDY AT SONOMA

A five-year, $100,000 research into the causes and factors in cerebral palsy has been started at Sonoma State Hospital, announced Dr. Walter Rapaport, director of the State Department of Mental Hygiene.

The study will be made in cooperation with the University of California under a grant from the U. S. Public Health Service and will involve intensive tests and work-ups in every cerebral palsy patient at Sonoma—expected to be about 1200 during the course of five years.

The project will be basic research in the field of cerebral palsy—a term applied somewhat loosely to a group of cerebral diseases in children, marked by paralysis. An attempt will be made to properly and scientifically classify the various conditions that have been grouped under this general heading—especially those conditions that combine cerebral palsy with mental deficiency.

Men and women with experience in either insurance investigation or professional accounting may now apply for state insurance investigator positions, the State Personnel Board said today.

The current need is in San Francisco. The state also employs such investigators in Los Angeles and San Diego. Monthly salary range is $325 to $395.

Applications are being accepted until April 1 for junior hydrographer, which pays $341 to $415; hydrographic aid, $310 to $376; and hearing reporter, $415 to $505.

There is a demand for physical therapists in state hospitals, the board said. Salary for jobs on two levels range from $310 to $436, depending on experience.

April 8 is the final application date for laboratory technician in animal pathology, with a salary range of $295 to $395, depending on experience, and for savings and loan examiner II, $415 to $505.

Official application forms and additional information may be obtained at Department of Employment offices on Columbia St.

ALLOW ONE CAR LENGTH FOR EACH 10 MILES OF SPEED SAYS HIGHWAY PATROL

"It is good driving practice not to follow another vehicle too closely. It's also the law," said Captain H. W. Clodfelter, commanding officer of the San Diego County California Highway Patrol area.

"The law states that the driver of any motor vehicle shall not follow another vehicle more closely than is reasonable and prudent, having due regard for the speed of such vehicle, and the traffic upon, and the condition of the roadway," Clodfelter explained.

"Many serious front end-rear end collisions could be avoided if all motorists would keep a safe distance from the car ahead. A good following distance rule is to allow at least one car length for each ten miles per hour of speed," he said.

Achievement Award Dinner Open To Public

Several hundred persons are expected to attend the First Annual Achievement Award Dinner next week when a medal created by San Diego's internationally known sculptor, Donal Hord, will be presented for the first time for the greatest contribution of an individual to promote the betterment of the entire community.

The dinner will be held in the new ballroom of El Cortez Hotel Tuesday, April 12, at 8. LaMotte T. Cohu, president of the Community Chest, said yesterday the dinner is open to the public. Reservations may be made through United Success headquarters.

Cohu said Hord, who is in Italy, designed the medal as his gift to the community. It will symbolize the outstanding community achievement in San Diego.

The first of the 1955 baseball season's local telecasts will be aired Saturday afternoon over Channel 10, basic NBC outlet for San Diego, William Hollenbeck, studio manager for KFSD-TV, announced today. The program will start at 1:30.

Goodwill Report Shows $18 Million Earnings

The 107 Goodwill Industries throughout the United States gave training and employment to 23,500 handicapped men and women during 1954, an increase of more than 1,000 from 1953, according to the annual report of Goodwill Industries of America, Inc., released today.

The report was issued by Dr. Myron Insko, executive director of Goodwill Industries of San Diego County. The San Diego Industries is a member of Goodwill Industries of America, which has its headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Although a non-profit organization, the Goodwill Industries were the biggest business in the field of private agencies serving handicapped people last year, P. J. Trevelyan, national executive secretary, reported.

Total income of the Industries exceeded $21,000,000, of which about $18,800,000 was earned income. Slightly less than $1,000,000 was donated income from community chests and public support, and the balance was service income.

AUTOISTS MUST HAVE CALIFORNIA TAGS

New residents of California whose motor vehicle registrations expire in their former home states or provinces on March 31 or April 1 will have 30 days thereafter to comply with California laws requiring them to register their vehicles in this state.

Paul Mason, director of motor vehicles, today advised that persons who have accepted gainful employment here or who have otherwise taken up residence privileges in California while displaying out-of-state license plates on their vehicles, are subject to this legal requirement.

Mason said March 31 is the expiration date for vehicle registrations in Maryland, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, and Washington D. C. Plates issued by five Canadian provinces, Guam, and the Provost Marshal in Japan also expire then. Texas vehicle registrations expire April 1.

'Platter Parade'

Ratner Recommends... the following two platters. Although they aren't recent hits, Ratner's feel that you'll enjoy them. "A-Ting-A-Ling" and "Malaguena" by Stan Kenton; also "Chow Mein" and "Poposa Poppadopolis" by the Gaylords.

Spike Fleas... Spike "the crazy one" Jones, aware that one must always keep changing one's repertoire, has added a "flea circus" to his troupe. A large screen will be used to magnify the antics of the fleas for the audiences. Jones reveals that the star of the flea show is "Felipe, the Spanish Flea," a well-known European artist. (Dogs will not be allowed in the audience, and no salary figure was mentioned.)

Reversion... Jazz had its origins in New Orleans, when musicians were called to play mournful laments (later termed the "blues") in funeral processions. A throwback to this custom recently occurred in Salt Lake City, Utah. Following the request of her husband, Lodel, Mrs. Dorothy Moore Jay asked that jazz music, good and hot, be played at her husband's funeral. Killed in an automobile accident in Colorado, the man had always loved jazz, and deplored organ music. Mrs. Jay said she was simply following her husband's wishes, with the unusual request.

Platter Poll... Here are this week's top five pop tunes as compiled by Ratner Electric, Eighth and Broadway in downtown Diego. "Sincerely" by the McGuire Sisters; "Ballad of Davy Crockett," Fess Parker; "Twiddle Dee," Miss Georgia Gibbs; "Ko Ko Mo," Perry Como; and "Pledging My Love" by Teresa Brewer. Leading classic: "Rubenstein Plays Grieg" on the Victor label. Best selling jazz record: "When Lights Are Low" by Miles Davis.

Music World... Steve Allen, master of the casual approach toward audiences, has a new show on NBC. Though he plays pretty good piano his fans hear him performing only spasmodically. Singer Betty Benes has been seen or heard in nearly every branch of the entertainment biz, including TV, radio, pix, musicals, etc.

Heart Fund Drive Totals Given

The 1955 Heart Fund has reached almost 90% of its goal, M. N. Wilson, chairman of the drive, announced yesterday at a meeting of the Heart Fund workers. $79,631.37 has been collected out of an original goal of $90,000. At the meeting, it was pointed out that many San Diegans had mistakenly thought the Heart Fund was included in the recent drive for combined charities held throughout the county.

"The Heart Fund has never been included in any combined charities drive and it is entirely dependent upon individual donations," Wilson stated. "Just a little help, as little as 25c from each San Diego County resident, would push our 1955 Heart Fund over the top."

Contributions can be mailed to the San Diego County Heart Association headquarters, 1651 Fourth Avenue, San Diego 1.

Fascinating Fashions

by Judy Seaton

Got Spring fever? Well, what's better to lift a girl's spirits than a brand new bonnet, says Loretta Young, charming star of "The Loretta Young Show" (see Sunday evenings 10:00 to 10:30 P.M., E.S.T., over the NBC-TV network). Perfect for showing off a pretty hair-do, millinery this season features narrow crowns which hug the very top of the head. Wings, clusters and coils of organdy, velvet and ribbon sweep forward from each side in a very appealing fashion.

Cloches also are most attractive with their many variations. There's a sand-colored straw with upturned sides (Dutch fashion). A small brimmed navy sombrero trimmed all around the edge with light blue ribbon. A turned down brim in red with a wide white ribbon about the crown accentuating the horizontal effect. And one with a vagabond swerve (worn over one eyebrow) which has a turned up brim with the jaunty trim of clustered ribbon.

Side-draped toques in silk, satin or faille are ideal for matching a dressy dress. Another turban of soft pastel felt has a wide cuff effect around the face and has a large mesh veil.

Wide, wide straw picture hats are also worn on the very top of the head so that the brim edge is just above the eyes. While some brims are smooth around, others are fluted for flattery and still others may have them turned up all around.

So, says Loretta, make your selection early and you will be the proudest lady in the Easter Parade.

VISTA LA MESA PUPILS MAKE $9 ON SHOW

Eddie Lebb and William Rogalla, fifth grade pupils of Vista La Mesa School, turned over to the Junior Red Cross $9.00, the proceeds from their Johnny Jupiter Puppet Show, given Saturday morning, March 28 in the garage at William's home at 4051 King St.

The boys wanted to do more for the Junior Red Cross than give their usual contributions, and decided that since they enjoy giving plays that they would give a play to raise money. The script for the play was written by the boys; three other boys, James Cameron, David Burks and Albert Olsen were added to the cast; posters were made in their classroom. Their teacher is Mrs. Schwalm.

Crosswalk Approved For Main Street R. R. Crossing

The California Public Utilities Commission last week authorized a crosswalk across the railroad tracks on the north side of Broadway.

A walkway had been previously used approximately 20 feet north of the main thoroughfare and a petition asking that that area be made the official crosswalk was evidently rejected. Interested citizens said that it would be hazardous to place a crosswalk so near the highway.

The County Road Department said that the new crosswalk would be put in this month. Normally, the railway firm, according to the road department, will surface between the tracks and two feet on either side.

Ground Task Force, arrived here in February from Japan.

For the next six months, the 4th Marines will participate with Marine Air Group 13 in coordinated air-ground maneuvers to the islands of Hawaii, Maui and Kauai.

Sgt. Coyle in Airborne Operation in Japan

BEPPU, JAPAN.—Sgt. Waldo L. Coyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine J. Coyle, 7472 Central Ave., recently participated in operation Tomahawk, an Army-Navy airborne maneuver in Japan.

His unit, the 187th Airborne Regimental Combat Team, participated in its target and simulated the capture of an airfield and the destruction of a missile launching site. The troopers then withdrew to the seashore for evacuation by the Navy.

Sergeant Coyle, a squad leader in Headquarters Company of the 187th's 2d Battalion, entered the Army in February 1952 and joined the team the following October.

His decorations include the Combat Infantryman Badge and the Korean Service Ribbon with two campaign stars.

How To Color and Decorate Easter Eggs

TO MILLIONS OF CHILDREN the country over, Easter wouldn't be complete without gay colored eggs... especially eggs they have had the fun of decorating themselves. In fact, decorating Easter eggs is a family project, for truth to tell, Mom and Dad can have as much fun coloring eggs as Junior and Sis.

And there are available today Easter egg decorating kits that make coloring and decorating easy and certain as well as fun. These kits come complete with all that's needed to get beautiful results. For instance, you might select a kit designed like an Easter basket. The bottom is perforated. This can be punched out and filled with green paper grass (grass comes in the package) to make a basket to hold the eggs.

As for the coloring itself, here's all you do:

1. For solid color eggs—purple, red, orange, blue or green—dissolve the color dye tablets in water and vinegar. For multi-color eggs, add a teaspoon of oil.
2. For the dipping, use the wire egg dippers in the package. They make dipping easy and keep fingers clean.
3. As each egg is finished set it in egg drying tray that comes with the package.

But that's not all. Egg coloring kits also contain gay little transfer patterns, and some have Easter symbol seals; also a magic crayon to write names or draw designs on the eggs. Most fun of all are paper cut-outs that transform the eggs into your favorite Disney characters—Donald Duck, Mickey Mouse, Pluto and Brer Rabbit.

Three Projects Set
By Hospital Auxiliary

Advance plans have been announced for three major events to be sponsored this year by the Women's Auxiliary of Grossmont Hospital, primarily for landscaping of the grounds. These events are: a Garden Tour, scheduled to take place Saturday and Sunday, May 21 and 22; a Country

The Grossmont Hospital Women's Auxiliary will hold its April meeting on Friday, April 8, 10 a.m., at Trinity Presbyterian Church, 3902 Kenwood Dr., La Mesa (the old La Mesa Country Club site), according to Mrs. J. Forster Couts, president.

Fair, set up for Saturday, June 25; and a Harvest Ball, to be held on Saturday night, October 1—all second annual affairs.

Chairmen of the special sub-committee have been appointed by Mrs. E. M. Tobin, ways and means chairman, to take charge of these affairs, and membership on the sub-committees has been drawn from the nine areas comprising the hospital district: Alpine, Lakeside, El Cajon, Fletcher Hills, Grossmont, La Mesa, Lemon Grove, Spring Valley, and Jamul. All members will, of course, cooperate in making each event a success.

CONCERTS SCHEDULED BY MUSIC PARENTS CLUB
The regular meeting of the Music Parent's Club will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Music Room of the Junior High.

The musical program will be two vocal solos: "Cradle Song," Brahms, sung by Judy Koopmans accompanied by Sharon Lane, and "Smiling Through" by Arthur Penn, sung by Joan Hollenbeck accompanied by Celeste Loustalet.

A vocal concert by all the vocal groups at Junior High will be held in the Cafetorium on April 27 at 8 p.m. Also on April 30 the annual Maytime Band Review will be held at National City with the parade starting at 2 p.m.

Parents of vocal group students are urged to send in their reservations for the annual award dinner on May 18 as soon as possible.

TODAY'S meditation

Read I Peter 5:6-11

Let us lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us. (Hebrews 12:1.)

It was at a meeting of the Alcoholics Anonymous group. Every member there had experienced the awful grip of alcohol. Most of them had had their lives, jobs, and families almost ruined by drink.

One of the things that caused me to wonder was the phrase heard many times: "I am an alcoholic." When I asked one of the members why they said "I am" instead of "I was," he replied: "Every day I admit I am an alcoholic. The temptation is still there. Only by admitting that I am an alcoholic, and then trying to live sober one day at a time, can I keep sober. And I could not do that unless I had God's help. His spiritual power."

Likewise, each of us needs to remember that we are sinners. We may not be alcoholics, but we have our temptations. It is necessary for us to keep ourselves humble before God. Each of us must seek His help each day to keep from falling into sin. Even the best of us is a sinner in need of God's presence and power.

Prayer

Father, help me to live each day so close to Thee that, though tempted, I may not fall. May I see that as long as I am in the flesh I will face temptations—and will need Thy strength to overcome them; through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Thought for the Day

Although sin will beset me, God will help me to keep from sinning today.

Teachers and Administrators in Busy Vacation Period Activity

During this vacation week for students, many teachers and administrators will utilize the free time to work at problems pertaining to education. Three principals from the Lemon Grove District will attend the state principals' convention in Santa Rosa where elementary principals and superintendents will confer in conjunction with the 27th annual conference of CESAA. Those attending are Ben I. Schei, Mrs. Evelyn Lauritzen, and Clarence Allen.

Mrs. Ada Krinsky, district music supervisor, will be a delegate this week to the Music Educators National Conference at Berkeley, California. The conference is for the California-Western Division, and it is sponsored by the National Education Association.

The State Council of Education is holding its semi-annual meeting during spring vacation at Astor, near Monterey. Mrs. Margaret Darroch of Lemon Grove will attend the sessions which will be concerned with pending legislation affecting education, the development of the state ethics commission, and progress of the teacher education and professional standards committee.

Classes resume on the Monday following Easter in all schools in the district. This marks the beginning of the fourth and final quarter of the school term.

Rene-Al Beauty Shop Opens in Grove

Irene Rockwell, a well known beauty shop operator from El Cajon, has opened a salon in Lemon Grove at 7343 Broadway. The shop, called Rene-Al No. 2, is open every day from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and Friday evenings by appointment.

Miss Rockwell opened her first shop eight years ago in El Cajon featuring quality hair styling and care at moderate prices. "We have attracted a fine clientele under this policy," she said. "Women of Lemon Grove who expect strictly professional work will find Rene-Al can fill their needs."

Free gifts are planned in connection with an extended opening period.

Postal Receipts Hit Record Level

Postal receipts in the Lemon Grove postoffice are up 25% over the same period a year ago, according to Postmaster Frenchy Faucher.

In 1955 receipts for the first quarter were $25,026. In 1954 they were $20,141. In 1948, they were $22,116 for the entire year.

The postal department is still planning to put the present office in a new building. Prospective landlords and builders may obtain bid forms at the local office, Faucher said.
